Decision Memo

Recommendation: Here would be the recommended decision in one or two sentences, including the main reason for it.

Context and options

Here would be the minimum background needed to understand the decision. Keep this focused on what has changed and why a decision is needed now.

Compare two or three realistic options. For each, briefly state the main benefit and trade-off.

- Option A: Here would be a short description of the option, its benefit, and its trade-off.
- Option B: Here would be a short description of another option, its benefit, and its trade-off.

The recommendation should follow from the priorities that matter most. [1]

1 This is a helpful sidenote explaining a concept: decision criteria are the priorities used to compare options.

Next steps

1. Here would be the first action, its owner, and when it is due.
2. Here would be the next action, its owner, and when it is due.

Decision: Approve / revise / decline. Here would be a brief space for a condition or comment.
